

JACOB LIN DHEIMER,
Assistant County Treasurer Who is Working Hard for Switzer for Mayor.

EAGLETS.

Clayton E. Crafts, the eminent lawyer and former Speaker of the Illinois House of Representatives, is much talked of by Democrats for Mayor.

John C. Richberg, the veteran and able lawyer, is always fighting for the advancement of his native city—Chicago.

Judge James C. Martin is making a good record on the municipal bench.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown's good record in the Circuit Court entitles him to re-election at the hands of the people.

John Gowan-Stobo, the famous expert accountant, is largely interested in western mines.

James S. McInerney will make a good record as clerk of the Appellate Court.

John D. Gallivan, the veteran letter carrier, is one of the most popular men in the service of Uncle Sam.

Judge M. L. McKinley of the Superior Court is making a fine record.

D. Reher of 178 West Washington street is the greatest rhine wine importer in Chicago.

Cement graft must be good.

James R. Buckley, Chief Clerk in the Criminal Court Clerk's office, is always adding to the efficiency of the public service.

James T. Patterson has made a good record as president of the Illinois Labor Commission.

Judge John M. O'Connor pleases his thousands of friends by his fine record in the Superior Court.

Get ready to make the drys dry up by beating them at the polls.

Judge Edward T. Glennon, the well known railroad lawyer, is respected by bench, bar and public.

Alderman John Powers is invincible in the Nineteenth.

Fred W. Alwart, the hustling former Alderman, has built up a great coal business.

Judge Frank Baker has made a good record on the Circuit bench.

Harry L. Shaver is highly respected at the bar.

F. Emil Gasch, a well known resident, is talked of for alderman of the 23rd ward.

Patrick H. O'Donnell, able lawyer, popular orator and patriotic citizen, is always in the front rank of upbuilders of Chicago.

William Best, the famous tobaccoist, who gave such splendid service as South Park Commissioner, is talked of for Mayor.

Chicago will never stand for Blue Laws.

George E. Brennan, the popular political leader, never wants anything for himself. He is always helping his friends.

Addison street, one of the widest and longest east and west streets on the north and west sides, should be made a boulevard.

Francis J. Houlahan is one of the most highly respected lawyers at the Chicago bar.

Martin B. Madden serves Chicago well in Congress.

Alderman T. K. Long of the Sixth won't run for re-election.

Peter M. Hoffman, the efficient coroner, is an official who grows more popular with the public every year. He is the greatest vote getter in the Republican party.

Judge Elbridge Haney is one of the sprightliest men at the bar, notwithstanding his long service on the bench and in the legal battle lines.

Callistus S. Ennis, the president of the Chicago Real Estate Board, is always in the lead of every movement for the betterment of Chicago.

Rivers McNeill is making a good record as collector of customs and reflecting credit on President Wilson.

Otto Reese, the popular former alderman, of Lincoln and Garfield avenues, is talked of for alderman of the 23rd.

Alderman Jacob A. Hey is always looking after the interests of his constituents. His fight against the boulevard link outrage pleases everybody.

Judge John R. Lavery is daily adding to his popularity in Chicago by his splendid record on the Municipal Court bench.

John Mack Glenn, the able secretary of the Illinois Manufacturing Association, is one of Chicago's live wires.

William F. Quinlan, "the father of Edgewater," has a host of friends all over Chicago.

Adam Orseltien, who was one of the best city treasurers that Chicago ever had, would make a good Mayor himself.

It is singular that the only people assailed by our so-called "reform" associations are men who are known to be opposed to government by public service corporations.

Judge Harry T. Dolan has made a grand record as Municipal Judge.

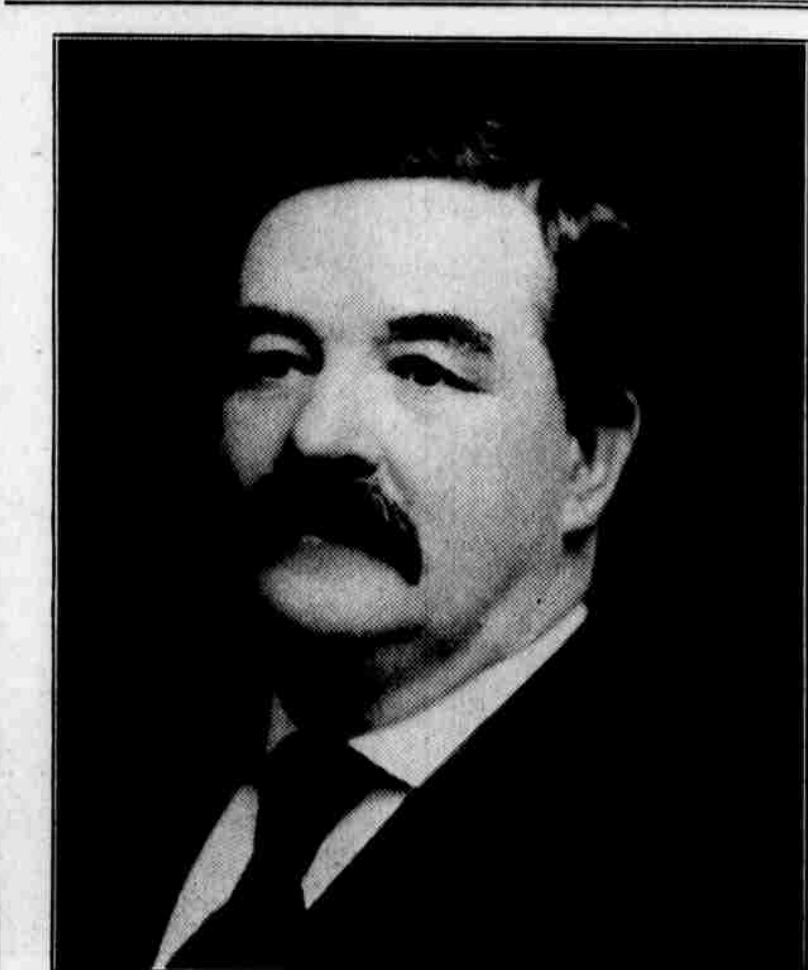

John Z. Vogelsang, the great restaurateur, deservedly stands in the front rank of the restaurant and hotel men of Chicago.

Charles H. Lamson of the R. F. Conway Co., is one of the best paving experts in the country.

Ernest J. Magerstadt, popular former sheriff, is talked of by Republicans for governor.

Daniel R. O'Brien, the popular insurance man, is talked of by Democrats for alderman of the 25th.

Oscar F. Mayer, the great packer, is very popular in politics and could

JAMES A. HOGAN,
Leader in the Stone Trade; Respected in Business and Political Circles.

have almost any office if he would take it.

R. P. Bamrick, who made such a grand race in the 7th Ward last spring, may run again for Alderman next spring.

Former Speaker Clayton E. Crafts would make a great mayor. He has the ability, the nerve, and the experience.

Joseph I. Novak has always made a good record in public life.

Judge John A. Mahoney of the Municipal court is very popular with the people because of the good, common sense he displays on the bench.

Thomas D. Nash has made a good record in the City Council.

Bartley Burg, who was re-elected to the County Board, has made a fine public record.

President Thomas A. Smyth, of the Sanitary District, has increased the efficiency of the service one hundred per cent since he took office.

Judge Charles A. Williams has pleased his friends by his fine record on the Municipal bench.

Charles B. Pavlovich has a record as a lawyer and a public official that is above reproach.

Judge Charles A. Williams has never disappointed the public. His record is clear.

Dow B. Lewis has many friends who would like to see him City Treasurer.

Judge James C. Martin of the Municipal court has made a dignified and honest public record.

Joseph F. Haas, the popular former County Clerk, is one of the most valuable and clear sighted of Republican leaders.

Electrification of the railroad means loss of employment to the majority of railroad employees.

The leading members of every society and club in Chicago read The Eagle.

Arthur W. Fulton, one of the best liked lawyers in Chicago, would make a good judge.

Charles C. Breyer is one of the best liked men on the Northwest Side. He is noted for his public spirit and devotion to the interests of his fellow citizens.

Granville W. Browning would make a good member of the Circuit Court bench.

Dennis J. Egan has always been pitted against the very strongest men in the Republican party. He ran against Peter M. Hoffman for Coroner and Adam Wolf for Assessor. A man who could do that and hold his own as well as Egan did certainly could beat any of the others.

L. D. Condee, the well known lawyer, would make a good judge.

William A. Birk of the Birk Brothers Brewing Company, is one of the best liked business men in Chicago. He could get almost any political nomination he sought if his tastes ran that way.

Ross C. Hall, the able lawyer, is doing good work for the legal department of the Sanitary District.

Richard J. Finn, the able and popular lawyer, would make a good judge.

Judge D. E. Sullivan has made an honest, dignified and able record on the bench.

Judge James C. Dooley, the able lawyer, would make a good judge of the municipal court.

With the aid of the railroads and their smoke, Chicago has grown from nothing to be the fourth city in the world. Electrification will be a step backwards.

JOHN F. SMULSKI,
Highly Respected Banker and Public Spirited Chicagoan.

McKenzie Cleland, the able former judge, is a man who is never afraid to stand up for what he believes to be right.

James M. Slattery should have been elected judge last time, but he will get there yet.

Judge John J. Rooney grows in popularity every day.

The William Hale Thompson boom for mayor is bigger than ever.

Clarence S. Darrow, always the friend of the down-trodden, is often mentioned for Mayor.

Francis W. Walker, the eminent lawyer, is a Chicago product. He has lived in this city all of his life.

Judge R. S. Tutill grows in popularity as the years roll by.

Judge Charles A. McDonald is making a splendid record on the Superior Court bench. He is a conscientious and fair-minded judge.

Sidney Adler, the well known lawyer, is in the front rank of boomers of his native city—Chicago.

Harry L. Shaver, the able lawyer, who made a good record in the legislature is talked of for Circuit Judge.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown's appointment to the Federal bench would please everybody.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown would be a valuable addition to the Federal bench.

Harry Rubens, who was corporation counsel under Mayor Hopkins, is often mentioned for mayor himself.

William Hale Thompson would make a big, liberal, go-ahead Mayor for big, liberal, go-ahead Chicago.

Judge Joseph Sabatin is making a splendid record on the Municipal bench. His decisions are always just, merciful and full of common sense.

Peter Reinberg is the right man in the right place as president of the county board.

August C. Reinhardt of Webster avenue and Burling street has a fine business and a host of friends.

William J. O'Brien, former senator and alderman, is making a wonderful success in his theatrical business.

John F. Clare has thousands of friends who would like to see him elected judge.

Thomas J. Webb is respected in business and public life. He is an ideal member of the Board of Review.

Charles Gastfield, now chief examiner of the city civil service commission, who organized the county civil service, has always made a good public record.

Justin F. McCarty, the popular Assistant Corporation Counsel, is making a fine public record.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown of the Circuit Court deserves re-nomination on his record.

Charles F. Gunther is often mentioned for mayor.

Frank S. Ryan will make a good record on the Board of review.

James Maher, the popular lawyer, who has frequently refused to become a candidate for the bench, has built up a large practice.

George W. O'Neill of the Eleventh Senatorial district would make a good alderman.

Thomas A. Smyth, the able and honest president of the Sanitary District of Chicago, has nothing to fear from attacks made upon him by spoliemen.

His record is above reproach and the saving he has made for the taxpayers is appreciated by them.

Frank McDermott's record in the city council will long be remembered for its usefulness to the public.

Edward W. Cribben, of the big Cribben & Sexton stove concern, is one of the active young men with a big political future.

People do not discover it until too late, that the so called washing powders not only eat up their clothes, but ruin their skin, and cause rheumatism. Use nothing but DOBINS' ELECTRIC SOAP. Have your grocer keep it.—Adv.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

JOHN E. OWENS

Attorney and Counsellor
at Law

CONWAY BUILDING
111 West Washington Street

William D. Munhall

ATTORNEY AT LAW

1616 Ashland Block
Clark and Randolph Sts.
CHICAGO

Telephone Randolph 3325

Francis M. Lowes Leroy Richards

Phone Central 2918

Lowes & Richards

Attorneys at Law

127 N. Dearborn St.
CHICAGO

A. A. Worsley

Attorney and Counsellor
at Law

Suite 1010
No. 170 West Washington Street
CHICAGO

Telephone 3730 Main

Coburn & Bentley

Attorneys and Counsellors
at Law

Suite 55
106 North La Salle Street
CHICAGO

Clayton E. Crafts

Geo. M. Stevens

Crafts & Stevens

Attorneys and Counsellors
at Law

Rooms 917, 918 and 919
STOCK EXCHANGE BLDG.
Telephone Main 1695

MUNICIPAL NEWS

Some Items of Interest From the Public Offices About Occurrences of the Week.

At the City Council Meeting last Monday night the appointment by Mayor Harrison of a morals commission and a special industrial commission was concurred in.

The industrial commission is made up of large employers of labor and of labor leaders. Its mission is to devise a plan for immediately providing work for the unemployed. The morals commission is to make a study of vice problems and act in an advisory capacity to the city's officials.

Following are the members of the special industrial commission:

C. R. Henderson, R. T. Crane, Jr., Edward Tilden, A. H. Atwood, Edward Nockels, John E. Merriam, W. L. Park, Julius Rosenwald, John Grunau, Simon O'Donnell.

The members of the morals commission are:

Dr. George B. Young, commissioner of health, ex-officio chairman.
Dr. Anna Dwyer, Rev. W. J. McNamee, Dr. E. G. Hirsch, John Koelling.

Mr. Koelling is the "liberal" representative on the commission. He is a former president of the United Societies for Local Self-Government.

Frank W. Solon, formerly superintendent of streets, died Monday at his home, 2826 Indiana avenue. He had been under the care of a physician for a year as a result of a physical and mental breakdown.

Solon was connected with the bureau of streets for twenty-one years. On two occasions he was discharged from the service on charges filed before the civil-service commission, but on both occasions was reinstated through a court battle.

In May, 1912, he was appointed superintendent of streets by Mayor Harrison, and July 16, 1912, this appointment was confirmed by the civil-service commission.

In 1913 Mr. Solon took a leave of absence on account of ill health. In April, 1914, he attempted to return to work, but was unable on account of his health, and renewed his leave of absence.

Meeting hours for City Council committees are as follows:

Monday—Streets and alleys, 9 o'clock; buildings, 3:30 o'clock.

Tuesday—Schools and police, 11 o'clock; harbors, wharves and bridges, 2 o'clock; local industries, 2 o'clock.

Wednesday—Special park commission, 10:30 o'clock; health, 2 o'clock; local transportation, 2 o'clock; track elevation, 3:30 o'clock.

Thursday—Gas, oil and electric light, 2 o'clock; license, 3:30 o'clock; water, 3:30 o'clock.

Friday—Compensation, 11 o'clock; judiciary, 2 o'clock; finance, 2 o'clock; bathing beaches, 3:30 o'clock.

Congressman Thomas Gallagher of Chicago is one of the most influential men in Washington.

P. J. Cahill, former clerk of the Probate court, with a fine public record, is talked of by Republicans for city clerk.

Judge Joseph H. Fitch has made a fine record on the Superior bench.

Judge Joseph S. LaBuy has made a grand record as judge of the Municipal court.

Thomas Lyons of 1159 Webster avenue, the well known Democrat, would make a good alderman of the 24th ward.

The Factory is the Place to Buy

FURS

OF

Every Description

Fur Repairing and Remodeling
at Most Reasonable Prices

GEORGE W. PAULLIN

Fourth Floor Stewart Bldg. Fourth Floor
N. W. Corner State and Washington St.

Professional Cards

Telephone Central 940.

L. D. Condee

ATTORNEY

and

COUNSELOR AT LAW

35 North Dearborn St.

ARTHUR W. FULTON

Lawyer

1103 ASHLAND BLOCK

Residence 3343 Monroe Street
CHICAGO

Telephone: Office, Central 4368
Residence, Kodak 6499

Stillman B. Jamieson

Attorney at Law

ASHLAND BLOCK

Telephone Central 1607

James C. McShane

Attorney and Counselor

Suite 822, New York Life Building
39 So. La Salle St.
CHICAGO

Telephone Central 518
Automatic 22009

Telephones: Main 1913
Automatic 33-037

Morton T. Culver

Attorney at Law

829-831 Stock Exchange Building
CHICAGO

Residence, Glenwood, Ill.

Telephone Central 618

Asa G. Adams

LAWYER

76 West Monroe Street
CHICAGO

Girard A. Ellingson

LAWYER

1001 Home Insurance Bldg.

CHICAGO

Telephone 2510 Randolph

Spencer Ward

LAWYER

Reister Building
Clark and Monroe Streets
CHICAGO

Telephone Central 4891